

Samonteza, Joshua Gabriel M.
Viola, Paul Jaira O.
BSAIT 4-3

Arrow (Connection)	Description
Cloud Services → Internet Connection	Secure WAN connection for cloud applications and data storage.
Internet Connection ↔ Firewall	Internet traffic passes through the firewall for security inspection.
Firewall → Airport Network	Protected network access for all airport systems.
Airport Network ↔ Servers	Transfers application files and directory services across the network.
Servers → Database Server	Structured cabling connects servers to the operational database.
Airport Network ↔ Database Server	Shares general operational data with the network.
Airport Network ↔ Airport Operational Database (AODB)	Exchanges real-time airport operational data.
AODB → Flight Information Display System (FIDS)	Sends live flight information for passenger displays.
Airport Network → User Workstations (Left)	Provides staff with access to airport applications and services.
Airport Network → User Workstations (Center)	Connects ticketing, administrative, and staff computers.
Airport Network → Backup System	Transfers data for regular backup and recovery.
Backup System → AODB	Restores or synchronizes operational data when needed.
Backup System ↔ FIDS	Backs up and restores flight display information.